

Uniworld: River Beatrice

7 Nights

Enchanting Danube

Summary

Fall under the spell of the dreamy river which inspired so many poets and artists and marvel at the mountain-top castle ruins, wine bars, charming churches and dark forests almost rising from the bed river. In Vienna, daydream while glazing at the picturesque horse drawn carriages and at the awe-inspiring architecture of Baroque castles and gardens.

Budapest, figuring in UNESCO world heritage, was named Paris of the East for its unique architecture designed with an attention to detail and flamboyance. Stroll around the down town with paving stones, and search for the Royal Palace perched on a hill. In Passau a very elegant German city, follow the winding narrow streets and alleyways that will lead you to the enchanting St. Stephan's Cathedral, a Baroque church dating back to 1688.
