

Milos

3 Nights

01 July 2014 – 30 September 2014

Summary

Milos is known as "the island of colors" thanks to its blue volcanic origin which offers beaches and waters of unique colorful beauty. Milos Island is ideally suited for outdoor activities such as sea-kayaking, scuba diving, sailing, mountain bicycling, trekking, distance swimming and windsurfing. With its jaw breaking sunsets, its multiblu beaches and its traditional small towns, Milos will surely steal your heart while making a restful vacation.

Greek mythology

According to mythology the island took its name from its first inhabitant, Milos who was the son of a royal family in Cyprus. The goddess Venus sent him to populate the island after the suicide of his parents.

Milos was also the home of Aphrodite, the Goddess of the love and beauty, who endowed some of her beauty on the island.

Festivals and activities

The Festival of Milos: this festival is one of the most one or important cultural event on this island. It usually lasts for two months and the set of events includes concerts, art exhibitions, dance happenings, children activities, book fairs and film festivals (first weekend of July).

Celebration of the Virgin Mary: the feast day of the Dormition of the Virgin, takes place in the village of Zefuria, at the church of Virgin Mary Portaitissa. Hundreds of people arrive from the early evening hours till midnight, among them are local musicians and many young crowds. Many local delicacies are served. It is celebrated all over Greece.
