

Athens & Spetses

6 Nights

01 July 2014 – 30 September 2014

Summary

Sunset dinners, intimate strolls, and a bottle of the best champagne: When love is wafting through the air, the romantic Spetses is the top place to enjoy it. Blending elegant amenities, lovely activities and a certain amour-centric charm, this soul mate island pamper couples that want a sweet retreat from everyday life.

Greek mythology

According to mythology God Pan fell in love with Pitys who was a nymph of the mountains. She liked Pan as well but she was afraid of Voreas (strong wind) who was madly in love with her and wouldn't let anyone else have her. When Pitis embraced Pan, the cold and cruel Voreas took her away and threw her into a gorge. Mother Titan Gaia took pity of her and Pan and transformed her into a pine tree ("pitys" in ancient Greek).

Festivals and activities

Armata Festival: The most important festival in Spetses is Armata Festival and it is held to commemorate a naval battle between Greek and Ottoman ships during the Greek War of Independence. The celebrations last for a week but the peak is the representation of the "burning of the Ottoman flagship" that takes place the first weekend after September 8th.

Agios Mamas The feast of Agios Mamas is a romantic happening on Spetses island. It takes place in the small chapel of Agios Mamas, very close to Dapia Source:
