

Ski in Chamonix

4 Nights

01 December 2014 – 31 March 2014

Summary

A stunning, very inspiring town nestled at the bottom of a valley at the foot of the majestic Mont Blanc.

Chamonix is one of the oldest ski resorts in France and has one of the highest cable cars in the world. The best skiers and snowboarders from all around the world come here to test themselves in the mountains with its tremendous long slopes and possibilities for snow riders.

You will surely be acquiring the perfect tan in this idyllic environment whilst enjoying skiing on slopes adapted to all abilities.

The après ski life is very animated and lively with a host of bars and clubs to keep you entertained.

There is a good range of events and activities going on and there is always something interesting happening at the corner from skiing world cups to music festivals
