

Easter in Corfu

4 Nights

10 April 2015 – 14 April 2015

Summary

“Kalo Pascha!”

They just love to smash home ware in Greece don't they! Around Easter time it is giant clay pots that are thrown off balconies to celebrate and mark the happy occasion. The tradition signifies an 'out with the old, in with new' practice. Traditionally the people of Corfu would throw out junk or old pots to get rid of evil spirits, whereas the custom is now more of a social event for the town and even a tourist attraction. Just make sure you watch out for a giant clay pot landing on your head if you happen to be in Corfu this Easter!
