

CroisiEurope

The Loire, a Royal Legacy

MS Loire Princess 4*

7 Nights

Summary

Discover a heritage with a rich tapestry, firmly rooted in history.

A region committed to the legacy of its heritage and united by the royal river. Walk along the little streets in Bouffay (the medieval quarter), through to the beautiful and flamboyant Gothic Cathedral of St Peter and St Paul. Visit Feydeau Island, a former island now joined to the rest of the town, and a superb example of 18th century architecture, before heading for the quays in Nantes. Visit Saint Nazaire shipyard, one of the largest shipyards in Europe. It is recognized the world over for its shipbuilding know-how, both in the past with the construction of the great ocean liners (France and Normandy) and nowadays with the giant ocean-going cruise liners.

Head for Clisson, a charming medieval town where there are fine relics from the 15th century and a real flavour of Italy.
