Day 1: Arrival in Marseilles

Upon arrival at Marseilles international airport, meet greet and transfer to hotel

Day 2: Arles, Camargue, Saintes-Maries-de-la-Mer

Today you will have a trip to Arles and visit the city and the arena:

Magnificent Roman buildings, Romanesque churches and rich art treasures in its museums

In the afternoon, continue into the Camargue: the plain of the Camargue count undoubtedly among the more unique Provencal landscapes. It is partly protected and therefore has not lost its originality

Reach les Saintes-Maries-de-la-Mer, the capital of the Camargue. As soon as we arrive from the north, long before the arrival, you can see the white silhouette of the village ahead with the old church dominated by a bell

Day 3: Avignon, Saint-Remy, Les Antiques, Les Baux de Provence

Morning drive to Avignon and visit its main building, the Pope's Palace. Inside the palace are located Rooms and chapels with precious frescoes. Other interesting points are the church of Notre Dame de Doms and the Bridge St. Bénézet well-known through the old song "Sur le pont d'Avignon"

In the afternoon, travel to Saint Remy de Provence, near the Roman ruins of Les Antiques in a beautiful environment.

Last stop is Les Baux de Provence, in the middle of the Alpilles. The village is located on a hill with a magnificent panorama of the whole of Provence from Mont Ventoux to the Mediterranean

Day 4: Aix en Provence, gorges du Verdon, Côte d'Azur

Departure for Aix en Provence where a city tour will allow you to enjoy the Provencal atmosphere of the town

In the old town, small narrow streets lead to fountain places

Next reach the Verdon gorges: on the comb-altitude road from the lake of Sainte Croix drive along the Verdon gorges with stunning panoramic vantage points

In the pretty village of Moustiers, known for its pottery, have a small break and then continue from Castellane over the Napoleonic road to reach the Côte d'Azur late afternoon

Day 5: Cannes, Island of Lerins

Today you will enjoy a city tour of Cannes

A stroll along the palmed Croisette belongs to the city visit. Some steps away you are awaited by the boutiques of Rue d'Antibes, the market district "Forville" and the old "Le Suquet."

Afternoon optional trip to the islands of Lerins: We discover the island of Sainte Marguerite with its botanical trails and the Iron Mask fort

Day 6: Nice, Matisse museum

In the morning, you will visit Nice, the capital of the Cote d'Azur situated along the "Angels bay"

Baroque churches and the colorful houses are a reminiscence of the Italian history of the town

The modern quarters with the Congress House "Acropolis" and the avenue Jean Médecin show the dynamism of this city of 400 000 inhabitants. Visit the Matisse Museum in a beautiful villa with olive gardens presenting many interesting sketches and Paintings by the master

Day 7: Eze and Monaco

In the morning, you will travel to Monte Carlo.

On the way, visit of the Fragonard perfume manufacturer in Eze. In Monte Carlo, visit of the small independent and sovereign Principality of the Grimaldi family, which offers very attractive places

The neighbourhood "Le Rocher" is famous because of the Prince's Palace, the Cathedral and the famous oceanographic institute. The sophisticated "Monte Carlo" has the largest European Casino. Here are the luxury hotels and boutiques where the famous stars from all over the world meet. Visit the exotic garden and have a city tour with a break in the quarter "Le Rocher"
