

Fanta Family

7 Nights

Rome, Assisi, Siena, Florence, Bologna, Padua, Venice, Montepulciano, Rome

03 June 2015 – 30 October 2015

Summary

These are the memories you'll talk about for years to come: tossing coins into the Trevi Fountain, feeding pigeons in St. Mark's Square and gliding down the Venetian canals. For Italians, family comes first (well, maybe second to eating), making Italy the perfect place to gather with those you love most. Together, you'll do more than sightsee—you'll learn to toss pizza from the masters, explore the caves beneath Orvieto and retrace the history of the Roman empire. Family bonding just reached a whole new level.

Day 1: Rome

Upon arrival at Rome's international airport, meet, greet and transfer to your hotel.

Free time and at 16.45 pick up at the hotel and you will take part of a pizza Making lesson

One of the fabulous instructors guides the students on how to make the dough from scratch, explains techniques and tips on making the best dough, and how to properly dress the pizza

Each student is given their own ingredients to give it a try themselves; they top the pizza with whatever they would like, and then of course... After the lesson, it's time to eat!

Day 2: Rome, Assisi, Siena, Florence

Early in the morning, depart towards n Assisi, where you can explore this tiny town, surrounded by walls built in the middle ages, at your own leisure

Make time to visit the basilica of St. Francis, where you will see masterpieces by Giotto and Ciambue, and to have lunch

Board the bus for Siena, a medieval town surrounded by ancient walls that is known for the Palio, an annual summertime horse race around the shellshaped town square, Piazza del Campo

Next, you will continue on to Florence, where you will check in to your hotel before enjoying dinner and a well-earned night of rest

Day 3: Florence

You will spend the day venturing around beautiful Florence, the "cradle of renaissance, where, with the help of Michelangelo, italian art reached its pinnacle

You will be fascinated by its numerous monuments, churches, and buildings, as Santa Maria del Fiore, more commonly referred to as the Duomo

In the heart of the city, you will see Piazza della Signoria, Palazzo della Signoria (also known as Palazzo Vecchio), and the basilica of Santa Croce

Lunch in a typical Tuscany restaurant in Santa Croce square

Day 4: Florence, Bologna, Padova, Venice

Depart for Bologna early in the morning. There, you will wander through the city's 38 kilometers worth of elegant arcades (or porticos), for which Bologna is famous. From Piazza Malpighi, walk to Piazza del Nettuno and Piazza Maggiore (Neptune square and Major square) in the heart of the city, where you will find Neptune fountain; King Renzo Palace; Podestà Palace; and the basilica of San Petronio, one of the biggest in the world. In the afternoon, continue toward Padova, with its original Sant'Antonio basilica. Later, you will arrive in Venice, world-renowned for its classic gondola boats and its elegant, refined art

Day 5: Venice

Hit the water in the morning as you board a private water bus to enjoy St. Mark's square, interior visit of the splendid cathedral, the Dogi palace, a symbol of the glory and authority of Venice as it housed the seat of the government and the court of justice. Nearby you will see the legendary bridge of sight. Spend the afternoon roaming along Venice's canals at your leisure and then return to the hotel for dinner and relaxation

Day 6: Venice, Montepulciano (Tuscany wine region)

Today you will depart from Piazzale Roma to Tuscany, known for its romantic churches and castles and its infamous wines. You will proceed to Val Di Chiana with a stop in Montepulciano, a medieval town rich with history and art. Known for its "Nobile" wine, which can be purchased in wine houses in town, Montepulciano is also the host of an annual jazz and wine festival every July

Spend the afternoon getting to know Montepulciano at your own pace

Free wine tasting in many shops and free time for shopping

Day 7: Rome

Between 7:45 - 8:00 am, after breakfast depart from the hotel and take the tour of the Vatican Museums, Sistine Chapel and St. Peters's Basilica and jump the queue! No stress to reach the area: upon arrival, your guide will lead you into the museums where you'll visit one of the most important art collections of the world

The tour includes the visit of St. Peters's Basilica. Explore the rest of the city at your own leisure and in the afternoon reach Piazza Via dei SS. Apostoli, 20 and take part to an amazing multi-sensory attraction Time Elevator, where you'll Voyage through 3000 years of Roman history, from Romulus and Remus up to the present day in just 45 minutes. The show runs every hour between 11:00am and 7:30pm
