

Christmas Market

Vienna, Salzburg & Innsbruck

6 Nights

21 November 2015 – 28 December 2015

Summary

Christmas Markets can be found in every major city and town in Austria. The Christmas Markets are a well-established and a typically Austrian tradition. The capital Vienna hosts around 25 markets. The 'December Market' in Vienna dates back to 1294 and is regarded by some as the forerunner to the Christmas Market. Don't restrict yourself to Vienna though. Innsbruck hosts many markets and Salzburg too, where the Christmas Market takes over the square in front of the Cathedral. The alpine towns and villages invariably host markets, which although are not that large, are oozing character and atmosphere.
