

River Duchess

9 Nights

Tulips & Windmills

Summary

From the canals of Amsterdam to the belfry of Bruges, you'll discover the best of the Netherlands and Belgium. Stroll through colorful acres of tulips at Keukenhof Gardens to get a sense of the Netherlands' extraordinary connection to these blooms. Then visit the 19 UNESCO-designated windmills of Kinderdijk to better understand how these mighty structures have been used to protect the Low Country from ever-rising water levels for hundreds of years.

Wander through the picture-perfect villages of Veere, Hoorn and Enkhuizen, and the enchanting outdoor Zuiderzee museum.

Uncover the rich treasures at Amsterdam's Van Gogh Museum, which houses the world's largest collection of the postimpressionist master's paintings, and take in the dazzling skyline of Rotterdam as you cruise through the bustling harbor.

Drift along the canals of Bruges, or discover Belgium's thriving flower culture as Ghent's famous flower show takes to the streets for the first time ever, and then "Do as the Locals Do" in vibrant Antwerp.

All along the way, you'll savor Dutch delights and Belgian treats as you sail the aquatic highways and byways of two amazing countries shaped by water.
