Day 1 Sunday: Los Angeles

Upon arrival at Los Angeles international airport, meet greet and transfer to hotel

Day 2 Monday: Los Angeles

Day at leisure to discover Los Angeles

Day 3 Tuesday: Los Angeles - Santa Barbara - Paso Robles

Today, you will depart for the California coast following the historic "El Camino Real"

Explore Santa Barbara, often referred to as the pearl of the American Riviera and known for its Spanish Colonial Style architecture, lush vegetation and laid-back lifestyle, and briefly visit the Mission. Early afternoon arrival to Paso Robles, once California's wine lovers' best kept secret, now the new hotspot for oenophiles and star on the international wine stage

Day 4 Wednesday: Paso Robles - Monterey - San Francisco

In the morning, travel to Monterey, California's first capital. After a stop in this beautiful seaside town, travel along stunning 17-Mile Drive known for its exclusive golf courses, beautiful views and distinctive fauna. Then visit the quaint and charming village of Carmel before arriving in "The City by the Bay" with its beautiful views, famous cable cars, parks and the Golden Gate Bridge

Day 5 Thursday: San Francisco

Morning sightseeing of one of the most beautiful cities in America including highlights such as Union Square, Chinatown, Golden Gate Park and Fisherman's Wharf with a view of infamous Alcatraz Island across the bay

Day 6 Friday: San Francisco - Wine Country - Sacramento

Start this day, dedicated to the epicure and the curious equally, on the famous Sonoma Marin Cheese Trail and visit one of the artisan cheese producers to learn about cheese making and to taste their products. Continue to world-renowned Napa, where you will enjoy a tour of a winery followed by wine tasting. Upon arrival to CA's capital Sacramento, an orientation tour will include both Old Town and the Capitol Building

Day 7 Saturday: Sacramento - Yosemite National Park - Fresno

Early departure to Yosemite following Historic Highway 49, which winds and meanders through mining towns of days gone by, when James Marshall discovered Gold in California at Sutter's Mill 1848 and set off the largest gold rush in history. A stop will be made in the charming town of Columbia, known as the "Gem of the Southern Mines". Continue to Yosemite National Park, the most popular natural tourist destination in California. Enjoy the beautiful scenery of Yosemite Valley with its majestic rock formations and breathtaking waterfalls. In late afternoon, travel through the fertile San Joaquin Valley, known as the fruit bowl of the nation, to Fresno, the final destination today

Day 8 Sunday: Fresno - Sequoia & Kings Canyon National Parks – Bakersfield

Follow into the steps of explorer John Muir and visit Kings Canyon and Sequoia National Parks. These two parks lie side by side, united by the scenic Generals Highway, and encompass the most rugged portions of the Sierra Nevada. The landscape testifies to nature's size, beauty, and diversity - huge mountains, rugged foothills, deep canyons, vast caverns, and the world's largest trees, Sequoiadendron giganteum. In all the world, sequoias grow naturally only here, on the west slope of the spectacular Sierra Nevada, in some 75 groves that tower above the surrounding forests. In the early evening, arrive in the small town of Bakersfield, an "All-American town" in the Southern Joaquin Valley and home of the Bakersfield Sound

Day 9 Monday: Bakersfield - Death Valley National Park - Las Vegas

Today you will visit Death Valley, the largest national park in the continental U.S., with its most famous sights: Zabriskie Point, Furnace Creek Visitor Center, the Borax Museum, and Badwater - the lowest point below sea level in the western hemisphere, an incredible scenery basking underneath the world's hottest sun. Continue to the man-made paradise of Las Vegas and for one evening enjoy this boomtown resort, featuring non-stop casinos, fabulous entertainment, great restaurants and attractions

Day 10 Tuesday: Las Vegas - Los Angeles

The morning is free to enjoy Las Vegas. Relax at the pool, shop or visit any of the many attractions in this bustling resort
At noon, depart west through the deserts of southern California and arrive to Los Angeles in late afternoon

Day 11 Wednesday: Los Angeles

Transfer to the airport for your departure flight
