

La Boheme in Dubai

3 Nights

10 March 2017 – 13 March 2017

Summary

One of opera's greatest love stories and Annabel Arden's sensitive and insightful production, first performed by Welsh National Opera in 2012, was welcomed warmly by both audiences and critics. The atmospheric set combined with Puccini's sublime and evocative score takes us on a heart-stopping journey of love and loss. Be transported to bohemian Paris where Rudolfo, a penniless poet, and Mimi, a seamstress, are head over heels in love. But in a world of turmoil and poverty, their hopes and dreams are crushed, and their passionate romance comes to a tragic end.
