

Taprobane Island

7 Nights

01 February 2017 – 14 December 2017

Summary

Taprobane Island was originally built in the 1920's by the romantically named but self-styled Count de Mauny-Talvande. The island with its neo palladian mansion has played host to kings, queens, presidents, prime ministers, aristocracy, writers and eccentrics, giving it a very colourful history, which guests can now share.

The Island comprises 2 ½ acres of sheer tropical fantasy with nothing between it and the South Pole.

Accommodation is provided for in en-suite bedroom, with spacious living areas, balconies, verandahs, tropical gardens and a stunning infinity pool. A staff of 5 cater for your every need; in fact after arrival, guests frequently never leave the Island until their departure.
