Day 1: Thailand

Depart from Bangkok and settle into your private cabin as the train rolls through Bangkok City to countryside.
Dinner is served in one of the luxurious dining cars.
Afterwards, head to the Bar Car to relax with fellow travelers or retire to your cosy converted cabin.

Day 2: Thailand

After breakfast, disembark at the River Kwai Bridge station for a leisurely cruise along the river guided by a local historian.
Later in the morning, join a visit to an evocative war museum and optional war cemetery.
Return to the train and look forward to an exceptional lunch and dinner.

Day 3: Malaysia

Spend the morning watching the changing scenery with breakfast in bed as the train travels through Malaysia.
After brunch, arrive at Kuala Kangsar. Disembark for a tour of the grand Ubudiah Mosque, the Royal Museum of Perak and the Sultan Shah Gallery.
Rejoin the train for a refreshing cocktail accompanied by live piano music before a glamorous final dinner on board.

Cabins Explained

The Eastern & Oriental Express offers guests four categories of elegant private cabins: Pullman Single, Pullman, State Cabin and Presidential Cabin. Most offer twin-sharing accommodation; all are fully air-conditioned with en-suite shower and toilet.
Cherrywood and elm burr panelling provide the backdrop for decorative marquetry friezes and intricate design inlays that enhance the fine fabrics and carpets.
The Pullman Cabins have upper and lower berths, while State Cabins and the Presidential Cabin offer two single beds at floor level. All Pullman Singles offer one single bed at floor level.
During the day, berths/single beds are converted into comfortable seating, so guests can relax and enjoy the magnificent unfolding landscapes.
