Summary

Surrounded by the unspoiled natural beauty of the Peloponnese, The Westin Resort Costa Navarino is a peaceful retreat in an idyllic location. The architecture is inspired by the old Messinian mansions of the region and incorporates local stone and design elements, taking in picture-perfect views across the bay. The low-rise villa clusters feature spacious guest rooms, also perfect for comfortably accommodating families. A variety of restaurants, bars and lounges offer tantalising menus with local and international flavours as well as an array of facilities and activities to ensure there is something on offer for everyone. While children will love the specially-designed kids' clubs and the magnificent aqua park full of water games and three different water slides, the parents can enjoy playing golf on either of the two signature golf courses. The extensive Anazoe Spa is the perfect place to refresh your senses and enjoy special treatments.
