Day 1: Dubrovnik

Upon arrival in Dubrovnik's international airport, meet greet and transfer to hotel

Dubrovnik also known as the "pearl of the Adriatic" and is listed as a UNESCO world heritage site since 1979

The old city is encompassed by medieval walls, which have been preserved in their original form and opened for visitors as Dubrovnik's major attraction. Whole city is alive monument and rich treasury of history

Rest of the day at leisure

Day 2: Dubrovnik – Korcula

In the morning, transfer to the Dubrovnik port. Embarkation to the catamaran/ferry for Korcula. The old town Korcula is grooved with a succession of narrow streets that branch off the spine of the main street like the fish bone. The architecture in the old town is mainly influenced by Venetian renaissance. The old town center is dominated by the splendid St. Mark's Cathedral built in the gothic-renaissance style, completed in 15th century at the place of other church from 13th century. There is a local legend that Marko Polo was born in Korcula town and Marko Polo's house of birth is worth visiting. The house is under the protection of the Korcula town hall and it will soon be turned into a museum of Marko Polo

Day 3: Korcula

Day at leisure

Day 4: Korcula – Hvar

In the morning, departure with the catamaran/ferry from Korcula to Hvar

The town of Hvar, on the honey moon island, is the oldest tourist center of Dalmatia, rich in historical monuments and interesting for the visitor. A visit to the 16th-century theater, the 13th-century Arsenal, or the central town square with the Cathedral, surrounded by numerous palaces built in different architectural styles, all of it only completing the picture.

The Franciscan Monastery in the town is known for its collection of works of old masters, including the "last supper" by Ingoli. Overnight in Hvar.

Day 5: Hvar

Day 6: Hvar – Bol

In the morning, transfer from Hvar to Jelsa to take a catamaran from Jelsa to Bol on Brac island. Bol is town on the south coast of the island of Brac, popular Croatian holiday destination. The biggest attraction in Bol is beach Zlatni rat (golden cape), pebble beach that stretches itself 500 meters into the sea and changes direction of its top influenced with strong sea currents. In Bol and surrounding area, you will find many other beaches, as well as private coves. Island of Brac is characterized by very favorable climate, mild, mostly moist winters and dry, hot and sunny summers. Local and seasonal winds also help maintain favorable climate. Local wind from the west makes life easier in hot summer days, and makes Bol a paradise for surfers. Overnight in Bol

Day 7: Bol

Day 8: Bol – Split

In the morning, departure with the catamaran from Bol to Split. On arrival in Split transfer to your hotel. Split is a town of ancient history, built and preserved over the course of 1700 years by its loving inhabitants. We will do walking tour in Diocletian Palace, the most precious monument in the city. Diocletian palace is one of the most significant original structures of the late ancient architecture, a kind of an imperial palace that was enlisted in UNESCO's world heritage. Overnight in Split
