

Short Break in Cannes

4 Nights

June – September 2018

Summary

Cannes has come a long way since its time as a small fishing village. Now an exclusive and glamorous resort, it plays host to an array of prestigious hotels, sophisticated restaurants, chic bars and fashionable shops, and is, of course, home to the sensational annual Film Festival. But it's still small enough to stroll around.

Don a Hollywood smile and designer sunglasses to saunter down the catwalk of exquisite La Croisette before reclining on a private sandy beach. Imagine how the Cannes of old might have been at Le Suquet, sample the food at the Marché Forville (covered market) and climb the winding streets of the Old Town for wonderful views from the castle at the top.
