Then see the stunning frescoes, ancient biblical manuscripts and old crosses of the monastery church of Ura Kidane Mihret. Return to Bahir Dar for lunch before taking an excursion to Blue Nile Falls (seasonal). The falls are known locally as "Tis Issat," which means "smoke of fire," after the smoky bubbles of the falling waters.

Day 3: Gondar

Embark upon a scenic drive to Gondar, the first capital of the Ethiopian empire, founded in 1635 by the Emperor Fasilidas. This afternoon, visit 17th-century palaces, the library of Fasilidas' son and the church of Debre Berhan Selassie, which is located at the summit of a hill and surrounded by fortified walls. Finally, explore the ruins of Kuskum Church and a nearby palace.

Discover the wild beauty of Simien Mountains National Park. The road to the park passes through mountainous areas boasting amethyst-colored peaks and deep gullies. Day 5-6: Lalibela

Fly to Lalibela, home to stone churches painstakingly hewn from the rock more than 800 years ago. Some of the highlights include Bet Medhane Alem (House of the Savior of the World), which resembles a Greek or Roman temple and is said to be the largest stone church in the world; Bet Maryam (House of Mary), which boasts beautiful frescoes and interior decoration; and Bet Giorgis (House of St. George), the last-built and most famous of these spectacular churches. Spend the following day further exploring this monumental site.

Overnight in a 3* hotel, Meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

Day 7: Axum

Fly to Axum, the site of the Cathedral of Tsion Maryam, which was founded in the fourth century and is still considered the home of Ethiopian Orthodox Christianity. Visit this cathedral, where the Ark of the Covenant is reputed to be stored; the palace of the Queen of Sheba; and a field of carved monoliths from pre-Christian times. The most controversial of the stelae, the Obelisk of Axum, was stolen by Italian forces in 1937 during Italy's conquest of Ethiopia, and has only recently been returned and restored.
