Seabourn Quest — South America

Summary

Seabourn Quest is the third iteration of the vessel design that has been called “a game-changer for the luxury segment.” Built at the T. Mariotti shipyard in Genoa, she was named in Barcelona on June 20, 2011. True to her Seabourn bloodlines, wherever she sails around the world, Seabourn Quest carries with her a bevy of award-winning dining venues that are comparable to the finest restaurants to be found anywhere. Seabourn Quest offers a variety of dining options to suit every taste and every mood, with never an extra charge.

Choose from 229 ocean view suites measuring 295 to 1,682 square feet, 90% with private verandas. Seabourn cruising life offers a wide range of activities, both aboard ship and in port. The Quest was built specifically with Seabourn’s guests in mind and many of the features and amenities aboard Quest were their idea.
