Day 1: Buenos Aires

Arrival in Buenos Aires, meeting and transfer to the hotel.

Day 2: Buenos Aires

Breakfast in the hotel. You will have a city tour around Buenos Aires. We will see the symbol of our city: the El Obelisco. We will continue to visit different squares such as Plaza de Mayo, Plaza San Martín, Plaza Congreso. Avenues like Corrientes, de Mayo, 9 de Julio, among others. Historical neighbourhoods: La Boca, San Telmo, Montserrat. Elegant neighbourhoods such as Palermo and Recoleta, and the modern: Puerto Madero, vanguardist such as Palermo Soho and Hollywood. Parks such as Lezama, Tres de Febrero and the Ecological Reserve. We will also visit financial and commercial areas and a Football Stadium.

At the evening, dinner show at Tango Porteño in the Platea sector. The old Metro Theater, at few steps to the Obelisco is now Tango Porteño and was restored down to the last detail in pure art-deco style. It is complemented with an artistic staff, unbeatable productions, and high-quality gastronomic creation.

Day 3: Buenos Aires-Iguazú

Transfer from your hotel to Jorge Newbery, Aeroparque for your flight to Iguazú.

Arrival in Iguazú. Transfer from the airport to your hotel in Iguazú.

Half day excursion to Brazilian Falls visiting its famous circuit with the most wonderful panoramic views. This circuit counts with 1.200 meters from where we enjoy a spectacular panoramic view of 275 falls. The most important Brazilian falls are: Florianópolis, Deodoro, Benjamín Constant and Salto Unión or Devil's Throat. When we finish this tour we access to a panoramic elevator which let us get to the bus, arriving again to the access door.

Day 4: Iguazú.

Breakfast in the hotel.

During the excursion to the Argentinian Falls we will visit the traditional circuits: The lower circuit has 1.200 meters, where we can appreciate most of the waterfalls from a really close perspective. It is a 2-hour tour that has many stairs making this walk a little bit hard. The upper circuit has 1.300 meters (with return). It leads us into the main waterfalls giving us a panoramic view of the group of falls from above. This circuit has no stairs and we finish it in 1 hour. We reach Garganta del Diablo (which means Devil's Throat) with the Tren Ecológico de la Selva (Rainforest Ecological Train) getting off at Garganta del Diablo station. From there we make a walk by the new footbridge which counts with 1.100 meters. We arrive to a wonderful panoramic point with balconies in front of the Devil's Throat.

Day 5: Iguazú-Salta

Departure from your hotel to the airport in Iguazú for the flight to Salta. Arrival to Salta and transfer to your hotel.

Salta City Tour:

A tour around the places of greater attractive of the city: The Cathedral (1855) where Gral. Güemes, patriotic hero, rests; Cultural Center America, Historical Museum of the North (Town Council) with exhibitions of sacred art and rooms dedicated to old traditional families of Salta, "San Francisco" Church and, "San Bernardo" Convent, and the monument to General Güemes. We ascend to "San Bernardo" Hill to enjoy the panoramic view of the city. After a visit to "Batalla de Salta" Monument (Battle of Salta) - and "20 de Febrero" Park (February 20th Park), we go towards the outskirts and visit a summer village called "San Lorenzo", characterized by the subtropical microclimate and lastly a visit the Artisan Market where craftsmen of the entire province expose their original crafts.

Day 6: Salta

Breakfast in the hotel. The journey starts from Salta city to the south, through route 68 traversing the Lerma Valley and its historical towns. We reach Quebrada de las Conchas (the Shell's Gorge), where wind and water erosion carved curious shapes on the rocks (The Amphitheater, Devil's throat, The Toad, The Castles, among others).

When we arrive to Cafayate, we visit some wineries, famous for their production of Torrontes, with special characteristics due to the particularities of the climate and land. After lunch we return to Salta through Quebrada de las Conchas (the Shells' Gorge) and the Lerma Valley.

Day 7: Salta- El Calafate

Transfer to the airport in Salta for your flight to El Calafate. Arrival in El Calafate. Transfer to your hotel.

Day 8: El Calafate

Breakfast in the hotel. We will depart in the morning to travel 80 kilometres that separate El Calafate from the Perito Moreno Glacier, the only glacier in the world in constant movement. During the journey you will get to know beautiful places of the foothills of the Andes, bordering the southern shore of Lake Argentino. After crossing the rivers Centinela and Miter, we will arrive at the Brazo Rico to enter the National Park Los Glaciares. Bordering the Lago Rico we will begin seeing the ice floes floating on the water; and finally we will be able to appreciate this natural wonder in all its magnitude. Perito Moreno Glacier has been declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

Day 9: El Calafate - Ushuaia

Breakfast in the hotel. Transfer from the hotel to the airport to take the flight to Ushuaia. to your hotel.

Day 10: Ushuaia

Breakfast in the hotel. Leaving Ushuaia city Southwest, we will travel through national route number 3, towards Tierra del Fuego's National Park. Along the eleven kilometers that separate the entrance of the Park and the city of Ushuaia, we will make a stop near the Centro Hípico (Riding Club), where we will enjoy some excellent panoramic views of the Beagle Channel, Ushuaia's Peninsula and Bridges', Willie's and Les Eclauriers' Islands. After crossing River Pipo's bridge, next to Ushuaia's Golf Club, we will arrive at the End of the World Station. Those passengers that would like to board the End of the World train will be able to take that optional tour. The rest of the group will await them at the end of the train trip. We continue our drive for 2 more kilometres and enter the National Park, an area reserved to protect the Subantarctic Forest and its native flora and fauna. From this spot we will be able to take a glimpse of both Redonda and Estorbo Islands. Through a path surrounded by Lenga forests and peats, we will reach Lake Roca, a glacier lake, with a surface of 5,50 square kilometres, and framed by mountains and forests, where we can likely be able to see different native birds. We will have around 30 minutes time to be at the services area. The last part of the excursion leads us to Lapataia Bay. Along the way we will cross Cormorants Islands, get to see other peats and also visit a beaver dam. Once in Lapataia Bay, besides the marine coast, rich in mollusks and mussels, we will find traces of the ancient native settlers that used to live in the region. We will have some time to walk through the footbridge, from which we will be able to take photographs and enjoy the feeling of being at the end of the world. From this spot, the end of National Route number 3, we will begin our journey back to the city of Ushuaia.
