Day 2: Beijing

This morning, you will visit Tiananmen Square known as Gate of Heavenly Peace for a stroll on the largest public plaza on earth

Proceed to the extraordinary Forbidden City (closed on Mondays), center of the Chinese world for nearly 500 years, the Imperial Palace remains the most complete and best preserved collection of ancient buildings in China.

After lunch, visit the Summer Palace – located in Haidian District

Day 3: Beijing

Today, you will be driven to the Great Wall at the Mutianyu section, enjoy a cable car ride up and a fun toboggan ride down

Imposing and almost defying possibilities, this stunning structure literally defined a border between worlds far removed from each other

Later on, you will enjoy lunch at a local restaurant

Afterwards, transfer back to Beijing city and visit the Temple of Heaven, a perfection of Ming architecture and one of the symbols of Beijing

Then, hop into a traditional pedicab and explore a traditional Beijing neighborhood

Day 4: Beijing – Xian

This morning, you will be transferred to Beijing Airport for your flight to Xian

Upon arrival to Xian airport, meet and greet and transfer to hotel

In the afternoon, visit to the Big Wild Goose Pagoda, which is the second religious building to survive from the Tang Dynasty (618 A.D. – 907 A.D.)

Your exploration of ancient Xian will end today with a visit to the Ancient Gate of City Wall with cycling

In the evening, you will be transferred to the Tang Le Gong Theatre to have dinner and see a Tang Dynasty Show

Day 5: Xian - Chengdu

Early this morning, your sightseeing will commence at 7.30 a.m. You are kindly requested to arrive at the Museum early as soon as it opens at 8.30 a.m., as it can get very crowded.

You will travel overland to Lintong County, site of the single greatest archeological find of the 20th century: the Terracotta Warriors and Horses Excavation. The dig lies 46 kilometers to the east of the city of Xian and is now made easily accessible by a new highway. The drive will give you the chance to view the fertile loess fields of Shaanxi; an ever replenished supply of soil which has been the foundation of civilization.

Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant, then afterwards you will be transferred to Xian Airport for your flight to Chengdu

Upon arrival to Chengdu, meet greet and transfer to hotel

Day 6: Xian - Chengdu

This morning, proceed to the Chengdu Panda Breeding Research Centre, situated on the Axe Hill 10 kilometers from the north suburb of Chengdu. It covers an area of 600 acres. Chengdu Panda Breeding Research Centre is the most famous conservation and protection center for giant pandas and "State Science Popularization Centre".

You will have lunch at a local restaurant

After lunch, explore the Sanxingdui Museum which was built on the 3,000 year-old site of the Shu civilization and is one of the most exciting new museums in China

In the evening, you will attend a Face Changing Show
