Visit unique Karimkhan Citadel in the heart of the city, and then continue to Vakil Historical Complex with its bathhouse, bazaar and mosque

After enjoying lunch, tour to Narenjestan-e Qavam Garden and Nasir Al-Molk Mosque

With its mystic atmosphere at night, Hafez Tomb will hopefully become one of your everlasting memories in Iran

Day 02: Shiraz

Travel to Pasargadae, the remnants of First Persian Garden and tomb of the most popular King of ancient Iran, Cyrus the Great. Then we'll head to Persepolis (60 km from Shiraz). A glorious monumental ruin of ancient civilization of Persia with total area of 125,000 square meters. After lunch visit Naqsh-e Rostam Relief nearby to Persepolis, before returning to the hotel in the afternoon entering via the Qoran Gate

Day 03: Shiraz- Isfahan

Leave the hotel to tour around one of the most beautiful cities of Iran, Isfahan (480 km). After having lunch on the way, arrive in Isfahan in the afternoon while having enough time to spend the evening visiting two of city's historical bridges, Si-o-se Pol and Khaju Bridge

Day 04: Isfahan

This will be the most unforgettable day in Isfahan. Up first you'll tour UNESCO listed Naqsh-e Jahan Square ("Image of the World") with four highlighted sites around it: Imam Mosque, Sheikh Lotfollah Mosque, Ali Qapu Palace and the Traditional Bazaar. After lunch at an Isfahan restaurant near one of World's largest squares, head to Hasht Behesht and Chehelstun Palace.

Day 05: Isfahan- Garmeh

In the morning tour around Vank Cathedral and Jameh Mosque of Isfahan, then after lunch you'll leave Isfahan and travel into the heart of desert. You'll arrive in a village named Garmeh (470 km) at night, getting ready for special surprises the next day

Day 06: Garmeh

Wake up in a village full of surprises. This green oasis in desert will help us feel and understand the true sense of Iran desert life. Tall Palm Trees, Scorching Dunes, unique Architecture, and Local Foods to taste will leave you with an unforgettable memory

Day 07: Garmeh- Yazd

Today you'll leave Garmeh to continue towards Yazd, the center of Zoroastrian culture in Iran (300 km). On your way visit the ruins of historical village of Kharanagh. Continue to Yazd then and arrive in the hotel at night

Day 08: Yazd

Today is your only day in city of mud-brick architecture. To take the most out of it you will visit city's Jameh Mosque with its magnificent tiled entrance, and then enjoy walking in one of oldest towns on earth, feeling the rich history of Yazd's old city. After lunchtime head to Dolat Abad Garden which has Iran's loftiest wind catcher, with over 33 meters height. Finish today visits by going to the stunning three-storey facade Amirchakhmaq Complex

Day 09 : Yazd- ZeinodDin Caravansary

Continuing your journey, you arrive to special Zein-o-Din Caravansary (75 km) and gain the opportunity to stay in a desert camps and visit Persian Zebra, an endangered endemic mammal of Iran
