After getting set up on your bike and a quick safety review, you'll set out for your first bike ride. This scenic cycling tour takes you along the Dordogne River on a loop through Pessac-sur-Dordogne. You'll stop to visit with a local resident, who has converted his old watermill and bakery into an upscale winery. He will share his passion for wine and teach you how to taste Bordeaux wines properly

Day 2: Sainte-Foy-la-Grande - Lac de Gurson - Gensac

In the morning you'll begin your cycling tour. Pedal through miles of green vineyards in the Entre-Deux-Mers, an area steeped in history and viticulture. After crossing over the Dordogne River, the route continues towards Sainte-Foy-la-Grande, a tiny medieval village on the banks of the river. You'll cycle until you reach the tranquil Lac de Gurson, where you will enjoy a lakeside picnic on the beach. Your delicious gourmet picnic includes typical French specialties, accompanied by a refreshing glass of Bordeaux Rosé wine

After lunch, you'll return to Gensac for another gentle scenic ride, with plenty of stops along the way for photos.

After an invigorating day on the biking trails, you'll enjoy a traditional Bordelaise dinner prepared by your hosts

Day 3: Dordogne River - Saint-Émilion

Today's ride takes you on a cruising descent alongside the meandering Dordogne River.

You'll travel across the river and continue cycling past three tiny medieval villages nestled amidst vineyards: Flaujacgues, Saint-Christophe-des-Bardes and Saint-Magne-de-Castillon and through the historic city of Castillon la Bataille, an important site in the Hundred Years' War. Then you'll arrive at the medieval town of Saint-Émilion, listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site because of its historical importance. Surrounded by picturesque vineyards and châteaux, this charming old village is famous for its wine appellation.

You'll visit the church and then have lunch at a restaurant in the town's main square.

Your tour also includes a wine class in Saint-Émilion, where you develop your "inner sommelier" by sampling some of the renowned wines from nearby estates. Conclude the tour in an afternoon "pause café" (coffee stop) and a visit to a bakery that sells authentic Macarons de Saint-Émilion (almond cookies) that are a specialty of Saint-Émilion.

After visiting Saint-Émilion, you'll continue your bike ride through the beautiful vineyards and past the famous Grand Cru Classé wine châteaux.

Tonight you'll enjoy an exquisite dinner at your world-class accommodation, where you will spend the night in scintillating luxury.

You will stop to taste the wines of Château Figeac or Château Pétrus and Château Gazin. Then enjoy an indulgent gourmet picnic in a lovely setting surrounded by historical windmills. Afterward, cycle back to Saint-Émilion, where you can spend some time sightseeing or shopping. Another option is to return to your hotel to be pampered at the luxury spa that features a sauna, hammam and beauty treatments.
