Day 1: Dubrovnik

Upon arrival in Dubrovnik's international airport, meet greet and transfer to hotel
Dubrovnik also known as the "pearl of the Adriatic" and is listed as a UNESCO world heritage site since 1979
The old city is encompassed by medieval walls, which have been preserved in their original form and opened for visitors as Dubrovnik's major attraction. Whole city is alive monument and rich treasury of history
Rest of the day at leisure

Day 2: Dubrovnik – Korcula

In the morning, transfer to the Dubrovnik port. Embarkation to the catamaran/ferry for Korcula. The old town Korcula is grooved with a succession of narrow streets that branch off the spine of the main street like the fish bone. The architecture in the old town is mainly influenced by Venetian renaissance. The old town center is dominated by the splendid St. Mark's Cathedral built in the gothic-renaissance style, completed in 15th century at the place of other church from 13th century. There is a local legend that Marko Polo was born in Korcula town and Marko Polo's house of birth is worth visiting. The house is under the protection of the Korcula town hall and it will soon be turned into a museum of Marko Polo
