Day 1: Arrival – Tokyo

Arrive at new Tokyo int'l airport, meet and assist guests boarding an airport bus. Arrive at the hotel, and check-in
Free time at leisure

Day 2: Tokyo

The day will begin with a stroll through Tokyo Tower, one of the popular city's landmarks : Neighboring Tokyo Tower is Hama-Rikyu Teien, a former private garden of an Edo Period lord. You will then have a chance to view Tokyo from a different angle as you take a boat cruise along the Sumida River
In the afternoon, the next stop will be Asakusa, part of Tokyo's Shitamachi, or old town. Asakusa is home to Sensoji Temple, Tokyo's oldest Buddhist temple, and is also the city's oldest Geisha district. From Asakusa, take the metro to Ginza, Tokyo's most famous upmarket shopping, dining and entertainment district.
The next stop is The National Diet of Japan, located in the same area as the popular Imperial Palace Gardens and the picturesque red brick-walled building of the Ministry of Justice

Day 3: Tokyo

Enjoy a full day tour around Mt. Fuji and the beautiful town of Hakone, famous for its onsen (natural hot springs) and its abundance of natural beauty
Before moving from Mt. Fuji to Hakone, take your time to enjoy a Japanese-style lunch. Then, the bus will whisk you off to Hakone, where a boat is waiting for you at Ashinoko (Lake Ashi). Hop on and go for a sightseeing cruise on this lake, which was formed by a volcanic eruption 3000 years ago
The ferry will drop you off at the bottom of Mt. Komagatake, where a cable car will take you from the lake up to the peak
At the end of your visit, your bus will take you back to Central Tokyo, conveniently reaching Shinjuku Station in time for dinner

Day 4: Tokyo

In the morning, gather in Hamamatsucho Bus Terminal, from where you will depart to Nikko, and discover the Unesco World Heritage-listed, Toshogu Shrine complex. Visit the Toshogu Shrine Complex, the Tamozawa Imperial Villa and Kirifuri Falls. Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant then spend your afternoon visiting Kegon waterfall and Lake Chuzenji

Day 5: Tokyo

Day free at leisure

Day 6: Tokyo- Kyoto

Transfer to Tokyo station, and assist in boarding super express "Shinkansen" to Kyoto. Arrive at Kyoto station, meet and assist boarding a taxi to your hotel

Day 7: Kyoto

Start your day with a tour of Kyoto visiting Nijo Castle. This ornamental castle, surrounded by stunning gardens, was built by the founder of the Edo Shogunate as his Kyoto residence. Continue to Kinkakuji, or the Golden Pavilion, which was originally built as a retirement villa for the Shogun
After your morning visits relax with a Japanese lunch in the heart of traditional Japan. In the afternoon, your exploration of Japan's ancient capital will continue with the Heian Shrine. A relatively modern landmark of the city (it was founded in 1895), it is famous for its bright colors and for the beautiful gardens surrounding it. Later you will pay a visit to Sanjusangendo Temple, an impressive structure where 1001 statues of the goddess Kannon are kept. 120-meter long, this is also one of the largest wooden structures in Japan
