Day 3: Meteora

Your road trip will start early in the morning. First stop, Archaeological area of Dion: Hellenistic and Roman theatres, ancient paved streets, swimming pools and baths with mosaics, conservatory, Roman houses, mansions and basilicas, a beautiful exemplar of the ancient Greece

After Dion, Mount Olympus and Litohoro village. For thousands of years, Olympus is wrapped in the mist of the myth of its history. The multi-form and volatile beauty of nature creates a magnificent landscape. Mountain peaks, canyons, streams, springs with crystal waters vegetation and sounds embroider harmony and majesty of the mountain of Gods

Continue your trip with a stop at Tempi, a heavenly place with its pure nature where sports like Rafting, Canoe and Kayak will be available for you

Last stop, Meteora, where you will spend the night

Day 4: Delphi

Continue your trip to Delphi. The Oracle of Delphi was the most famous oracle of ancient Greece

The night will be held at a picturesque, traditional village, Galaxidi

Take a walk in the village and visit one of the traditional taverns for dinner

Day 5: Athens

Today you enjoy a half day city tour of Athens, with a visit to the Roman Temple of Olympian Zeus and the Acropolis. Highlights include the impressive Parthenon, the Propylaea, the Temple of Athena Nike and the Erechtheion, with its Porch of Maidens

After seeing the highlights of ancient Athens, the trip concentrated on modern highlights will follow

A drive past the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in front of the Parliament House on Constitution Square

Next stop, the Panathenian Stadium (site of the first modern Olympic Games in 1896) and the Presidential Palace (ex Royal Palace), government buildings and elegant houses. Along Panepistimiou Avenue you will be able to admire the Catholic cathedral, the Academy, University, National Library and Omonia Square.

Day 6: Athens

This morning you can go on an optional trip to Sounio. The dramatic coastal location of Sounio (Cape Sounion) in southern Attica was an ideal spot for a Temple of Poseidon, God of the Sea. Standing at top sheer cliffs overlooking the Aegean Sea, the marble temple has served as a landmark for sailors from ancient times to today.
