Private Dubrovnik sightseeing tour with local guide (Duration approx. 2 hrs);

«.... Those who seek paradise on Earth should come to Dubrovnik» (George Bernard Shaw)

Often called the "Pearl of the Adriatic," Dubrovnik has it all. Travelers from all over the world visit picture-perfect Dubrovnik to experience the rich history preserved in the monuments and buildings, to taste the fantastic local cuisine, to take a few fun daytrips and to enjoy in the warm waters. It is home to Croatia's artistic and intellectual elite and offers numerous cultural activities and festivals.

We will continue to Konavle region for cooking class at local homestead.

Traditional cooking class with local family in Konavle region:

Enjoy Croatian food and hospitality at their finest. We will take you on a journey through secret recipes of Croatian food. Taking a cooking class, you will befriend locals, learn about food, have fun and enjoy a good lunch. Run by unique individuals who love sharing their passion and their culture, these cooking classes provide great insight into the local everyday living.

Oyster tasting in Ston area:

Traces of oyster farming in the Ston Bay area have existed since the period of Roman rule in this area. The first written documents on shellfish hunting date from the 16th century, and on breeding from the 17th century, records from the time of the Dubrovnik Republic. They are well known best natural aphrodisiac. Aphrodite, the goddess of love, beauty and lust, was born, as artists see it, in a shell. And if you ask the people of Mali Ston, they have no doubt that the shell was an oyster. Ostrea edulis — specie of oysters grown only in Mali Ston Bay are specific for their taste and very sensitive to grow. We invite you to join us for the best, unique oyster tasting paired with our local wine to excite your tastebuds, refresh yourselves, enjoy the Mediterranean Sea and rejuvenate your spirit and soul.

We will continue to seek new experiences in Pelješac peninsula.

Visit of Saint Hills winery

Peljesac peninsula, a paradise for both wine lovers and nature lovers. Whether you are new to wine tasting or a real expert — a visit to a local winery won't leave you unsatisfied! When visiting the peninsula of Pelješac, this miraculously preserved wonder of Mediterranean nature and culture, you can easily get the feeling that someone placed you into the scene of an old movie Maybe the clocks were stopped here, somewhere in the times without smartphones and constant rush. It is just what your soul needed. We will stay at 3 course lunch at this beautiful property.

On the way back to Dubrovnik, we will make a short stop at another local family:

Dubelj — family that runs a 300-year-old olive oil mill in Orašac. We will see a presentation of how the olive oil used to be produced in the past. Tasting local olive oil is a unique opportunity to complete the experience of visit of the mil.
