

Barbados & Bequia Islands 13 Nights

Summary

Imagine it: Thatched-roof cottages rise over turquoise waters; the sweet scent of tropical flowers and rum punch fills the air; bronzed sun-worshippers sprawl along isolated white sands, hemmed by shimmering waves, coral reefs and sleek yachts. The only thing luring you away from your beach towel is the intriguing network of secluded islands floating in the distance. Welcome to Barbados, St. Vincent & The Grenadines Islands

Day 1: Oistins

Today you begin your journey by boarding your international outbound flight to Barbados. On arrival you'll be met before you go through passport control, so you can be whisked through this process. You'll then be transferred to Little Arches just a 10-minute drive from the airport. This cute boutique property will be the perfect place to explore the south of Barbados.

Day 2: Oistins

If you are here on a Friday night, take a taxi to Oistins to join the locals on their Friday evening ritual. Local fishermen bring their catch of the day to the dockside to be cooked by their families and sold at food stalls.

Day 3: Oistins

Today you could take part in a visit to the Mount Gay Rum Distillery, followed by a guided walking tour of Bridgetown.

Day 4: Bequia

Enjoy breakfast in the hotel's restaurant upstairs before your driver comes to collect you to return you back to the airport. You'll then take the light aircraft to beautiful Bequia. On arrival you will be met by an open back taxi and transferred to Bequia Beach Hotel.

Day 5: Bequia

Enjoy your first full day at Bequia settling in to your super hotel. Take a stroll along the beautiful beach and relax beside the pool. Perhaps this evening head out for dinner at a local restaurant, Fernando's is particularly good.

Day 6: Bequia

Today you could take a tour of the island, visit local markets and enjoy views from up high. This evening why not head to Jack's Bar to enjoy watching the sunset with a sundowner in hand

Day 7: Bequia

Take a stroll along the Belmont coastal path. Starting in Port Elizabeth, the path hugs the water and winds its way around passing Belmont and Princess Margaret Beach before continuing with steps up and over the headland

Day 8: Bequia

Find out which night will have the special barbecue at Bequia Beach Hotel. There is plenty of food and some live entertainment.

Day 9: Bequia

Why not have a wander around Port Elizabeth and look around the market today. The tourist information centre is useful to find out what is going on this week.

Day 10: Bequia

There are hidden stories to Bequia, and you can enjoy these with your local taxi driver. This can be easily arranged through the hotel.

Day 11: Bequia

All the beaches in Bequia have their own unique character. Visit Industry Bay on the northeast coast for a quiet spot with views of the Atlantic Ocean.

Day 12: Bequia

If you feel like testing out your sea legs then visit Tobago Cays and discover some incredible snorkelling and even the chance of seeing turtles.

Day 13: International return flight

You'll have the morning at leisure before being transferred back to the airport in time for your short flight to hop back to Barbados. Make sure you have your departure tax ready to pay upon departure in Bequia, ECD100 per person. You'll have a bit of time in the airport at Barbados before your international flight home, but there are plenty of shops and places to sit or maybe get a snack.

Day 14: International return flight

Arrive home today to complete your journey.
